

SURF BASEBALL-CODE OF CONDUCT-Parents

The SURF Baseball program's main goal is to make sure that all players, parents, and coaches maintain the highest standard of sportsmanship and ethical behavior at all times. In order to achieve this goal we have put together a Code of conduct.

Parents shall refrain from the following conduct:

- Talking in a negative manner to other teams
- Yelling or making jesters to umpires
- Talking badly about any coaches decision
- Talking in a negative manner about other players on the team
- Foul language
- Fighting with any other teams
- Any other acts that may cause embarrassment to the program, your family, or yourself

Parents pledge to:

- Be positive
- Support the program and the decisions made by the program
- Get their kids to games and practices on time
- Stay out of all dugouts before and during games
- Not talk to their kids or coaches in the dugouts during games
- Make sure their kids have all the drinks and snacks needed prior to entering dugout.
- Always control my actions on and off the field
- Be good sports by being gracious in victory and defeat
- Always wear SURF gear with pride
- Check website and emails prior to any practice or game for possible changes
- Comitt to the program from August 1st 2011- February 1st 2012
- Communicate to coaches and director if you will miss a game or practice
- Pay tournament fees on top of their monthly dues
- Understand that their kids experience is based on the support of their family through good times and bad.

It is your job as a SURF parent to follow this Code of Conduct at all times. If for any reason you do not follw these rules you may be removed from the practice or games. If the same problem continues you may by put on suspension or dismissed from the program.

I, _____ have read and understand the SURF Code of Conduct. I pledge to follow these rules and realize that my actions have consequences. I will be the best SURF parent I can be.

X _____ DATE: _____